United Nations S/2000/1225/Corr.1

Security Council

Distr.: General
23 February 2001

Original: English

Note by the President of the Security Council

Corrigendum

1. Page 1 should read

The attached final report of the Monitoring Mechanism on Sanctions Against UNITA established by resolution 1295 (2000) was presented to the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) concerning the situation in Angola. The report is being circulated for the information of the Members of the United Nations. Consideration of the report in the 864 (1993) Sanctions Committee is beginning, after which the Committee will officially present the report to the Security Council.

2. Page 2, first paragraph of the annex, should read

I have the honour to transmit herewith the final report of the Monitoring Mechanism on Sanctions Against UNITA established by the Security Council in resolution 1295 (2000) of 18 April 2000 (see enclosure).

3. Page 3, the title of the enclosure should read

Final report of the Monitoring Mechanism on Sanctions Against UNITA

4. Page 6, paragraph 1

Should read

1. The present report is submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1295 (2000) of 18 April 2000, which established the Monitoring Mechanism on Sanctions Against UNITA for a six-month period and mandated it to:

5. Page 7, paragraph 5

Should read

5. The Monitoring Mechanism on Sanctions Against UNITA has had two points of departure for its work: the report of the Panel of Experts and the current situation on the ground in Angola. Efforts have been made to follow up on leads provided but not investigated by the Panel due to the shortage of time. One objective has been to try to shed even more light on the interaction between UNITA and the shady arms dealers and transporters who have been instrumental in the rearmament of that organization for reasons of profit and greed rather than ideology. Another objective has been to look at the sanctions, their implementation and importance in the context of the current situation.

01-26392 (E) 260201

United Nations S/2000/1225/Corr.2

Security Council

Distr.: General
8 March 2001

Original: English

Note by the President of the Security Council

Corrigendum

1. Paragraph 17, second line

   For to continue to impact fuel read to continue to import fuel

2. Paragraph 20

   The last sentence should read

   The sanctions and their implementation and monitoring are of utmost importance to help ensure that this will not reoccur

3. Paragraph 43

   The first sentence should read

   During the Mechanism's visits to Togo, it was informed by the authorities that they did not issue the 18 end-user certificates that surfaced in Bulgaria

4. Paragraph 44

   The first sentence should read

   The Monitoring Mechanism addressed the issue of the seized equipment destined for UNITA with the Togolese authorities

5. Paragraph 44

   The second entry under flight information should read

   23 August 1997

6. Paragraph 46

   The penultimate sentence should read

   The records of Air Cess operated flights at Niamtougou confirm the information

7. Paragraph 136

   The last sentence should read

   In the past, one of its aircraft bearing the registration El-Ale, was noted as supplying UNITA forces

01-28028 (E) 090301

8. Paragraph 175

The second sentence should read

We note that in October 2000 the Government of Burkina Faso promulgated a decree banning the importation of diamonds and precious metals originating from conflict zones

9. Paragraph 218

The last sentence should read

However, there is a pre-existing financial instrument that may aid in tracing UNITA-related assets, the Basel Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision

10. Paragraph 247, second line

For objective and complete as possible report read objective and as complete as possible report

11. Page 18, List of Senior UNITA Officials

Opposite entry 139, delete the telephone number 212-758-1976